

Call for papers:
13th Annual Conference on the Political Economy of International Organization (PEIO)

February 20-22, 2020, Vancouver, Canada
co-hosted by Simon Fraser University and the University of British Columbia

We invite submissions for the thirteenth annual conference on the Political Economy of International Organization. The conference is jointly hosted by the University of British Columbia and Simon Fraser University, and will be held in Vancouver, Canada, on February 20-22, 2020. The conference brings together economists and political scientists to address political economy issues related to international organizations such as the World Trade Organization, United Nations, International Monetary Fund, World Bank, and European Union, and others. We also consider submissions on topics more broadly related to international organization, such as foreign aid, international agreements and international law.

Submission of Papers

Both empirical and theoretical papers will be considered. Please submit full papers via our online submission form. The deadline for submission is September 30, 2019. Decisions will be made by October 31, 2019.

Conference Format, Attendance, and Registration

The number of participants will be limited to about 100 to allow for in-depth discussion of each paper. Authors of accepted papers are expected to attend the entire conference. There is no conference or registration fee. Travel and accommodation are at the expense of participants.

Conference Venue

The conference will be held at Simon Fraser University's downtown campus in Vancouver, Canada. The closest airport is Vancouver (YVR). US participants may find cheaper airfares to Seattle, but should factor in a 3-hour drive. For European-based participants, there are direct flights between YVR and Amsterdam, Frankfurt, London, and Paris.
